

Meet Cece Valencia

Los Angeles radio & television personality Cece Valencia, better known as "Cece The Mamacita" is currently on air on 93.5 KDAY Monday thru Saturday from 10am to 3pm. With over 15 years experience in the entertainment industry, Cece's main message to her audience is to inspire, recharge and reflect through music.

Cece began her radio career at Wild 96.1 in the Inland Empire then made her way to Hot 97.5 in Las Vegas where she spent 5 years as #1 at nights in the market. Returning back to Los Angeles, she did morning's at 93.5 KDAY and voiced the popular Grand Theft Auto 5. Eventually she made her way to Latino 96.3 and started working for Jennifer Lopez's network NuvoTv on music driven show "The Collective".

Growing up in Los Angeles, Cece is driven by the LA Culture Of Hip Hop thus returning to the legendary 93.5 KDAY in 2014 to dominate middays. Since then, Cece has been using her platform to encourage education and self love to the community. Besides, rocking out with you weekly on 93.5 KDAY, Cece is currently working on a project called "Tons Of Anarchy" executive produced by George Lopez and she can be seen this fall in Vivaca Fox's "Chocolate City 2".